

North Valley Institute Academic Integrity Policy

Policy extract for EDUC118.

Students may use proofreading software, citation managers, and library databases. Students must not submit work written by another person or generated by an automated tool as their own work.

If a concern is raised, the student may provide drafts, source notes, version history, and tool-use records to explain the writing process.