

Eastport University AI Policy Extract

Students must disclose material use of generative AI. Material use includes asking a tool to draft sentences, paragraphs, analysis, or source summaries. Non-material use includes spelling checks, grammar checks, or general explanation of assignment instructions.

Where material use occurs, students should retain prompts, outputs, and revision records showing how the final work became their own.